NATIONAL RURAL INFRASTRUCTURE GRANT IMPLEMENTATION GUIDELINES 2026

Main Purpose: Revised fund allocation and disbursement procedures for Gram Panchayats.

This comprehensive official notification lays down the operational framework for executing rural road, water supply, and electrification projects across all participating districts. All Gram Panchayat Development Officers and District Project Directors are required to strictly adhere to the timeline, procurement safeguards, and financial reporting benchmarks.

Issuing Authority: Directorate of Rural Infrastructure, Krishi Bhavan, New Delhi.
Designated Beneficiaries: All Panchayati Raj Institutions and accredited contractors.

Submission Channel: All audit compliance dossiers and progress certificates must be submitted through the official national monitoring portal https://ruralinfras.gov.in.
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 2: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 2 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 3: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 3 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 4: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 4 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 5: Required Verification Documents and Checklist

Prior to fund disbursement for Phase 2 infrastructure works, the following required documents must be submitted by the executing engineer to the District Project Director:

1. Soil Testing and Engineering Feasibility Report
2. Gram Sabha Resolution and Approval Minute
3. Verified Contractor Performance Guarantee Bond

Optional Document: Geo-tagged drone site imagery is optional but recommended for fast-track processing.

Ensure all documentation is duly countersigned by the Block Development Officer.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 6: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 6 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 7: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 7 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 8: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 8 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 9: Calendar of Operations and Project Deadlines

Critical Schedule of Submission Dates for Fiscal Year 2026-27:
Primary Deadline: All project completion reports must be submitted on or before 20 December 2026.
Failure to submit by this date will result in freeze of central funding allocation.

Extended Deadline: Submissions with special dispensation and penalty are accepted until 10 January 2027.
Extended submissions are subject to a late audit fee of Rs. 5,000 per delayed project report.

Consequence: If the primary deadline is missed, project sanction will be put on hold.
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 10: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 10 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 11: Administrative Protocols and Technical Annexure

Detailed provisions for Phase 11 operations under the National Infrastructure Framework.

Engineers and administrative staff must follow standard operating procedure 402/2026.

Periodic quality audits will be conducted without prior intimation by the State Quality Monitors.

All expenditure logs must reconcile with the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Detailed equipment specifications and environmental impact criteria must be observed.

Field inspections must be logged with GPS coordinates and photographic records.

Quarterly review meetings will be chaired by the Principal Secretary at state headquarters.

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica

Section 12: Regulatory Compliance, Penalties and Warnings

Compliance Warnings and Sanctions:
Cash transactions are strictly prohibited under the Central Treasury Rules.
Any non-compliance in procurement standards will invite criminal proceedings under Section 197.

Notice Warning: Payments through unverified intermediary portals or third-party brokers are invalid.

Action Steps for Project Completion Certification:
1. Verify site completion with Block Development Officer.
2. Upload audited expenditure reports to the national portal.
3. Collect the central fund release certificate from the District Magistrate office.
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica
Government officers and project personnel must maintain high standards of probity and transparency. Any deviation from prescribed technica